Respondent$A19MC1360JKPMiscellaneous No. SWORN STATEMENT OF MOVANT*FINANCIAL PRIVACY ACT OF 1978

I, DANIEL C. LEE, JR., am presently a customer of Frost Bank, and I am the customer whose records are being requested by the Government.

The financial records sought by the Department of Defense are not relevant to the legitimate law enforcement inquiry stated in the Customer Notice that was sent to me because I notified the Department of Defense on the day my father died of his death and the monthly amount was reduced thereafter approximately from $2,300 per month down to $1,600.00 per month. My father was a minister and I am a minister myself. Neither he nor I would ever defraud anyone, let alone the United States government, for any reason whatsoever. I pride myself in living by God's laws and I do! The government was obviously aware of his death as burial arrangements were made at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery for his burial as a service member. Funeral program is attached.

I figured that his monthly payment was reduced because I notified the Department of Defense of his death. I had general power of attorney. Copy is attached of same.

The financial records sought by the Department of Defense should not be disclosed on the following other legal basis: My father left a Will, which is attached and it was probated, I was named as the sole beneficiary and executor of his Will. The documentation is attached. He left everything that he owned or had an interest in to me. My father and I had a joint account at Frost Bank

#018614335. I am the sole beneficiary to his entire estate and any of his government benefits belonged to me after his death. I do not understand why the Department of Defense is harassing me.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

STATEMENT OF CUSTOMER RIGHTS UNDER THE FINANCIAL PRIVACY ACT OF 1978

Federal law protects the privacy of your financial records. Before banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, credit card issuers, or other financial institutions may give financial information about you to a federal agency, certain procedures must be followed.

CONSENT TO FINANCIAL RECORDS: You may be asked to consent to the financial institution making your financial records available to the Government. You may withhold your consent, and your consent is not required as a condition of doing business with any financial institution. If you give your consent, it can be revoked in writing at any time before your records are disclosed. Furthermore, any consent you give is effective for only three months, and your financial institution must keep a record of the instances in which it discloses your financial information.

WITHOUT YOUR CONSENT: Without your consent, a federal agency that wants to see your financial records may do so ordinarily only by means of a lawful subpoena, summons, formal written request, or search warrant for that purpose. Generally, the federal agency must give you advance notice of its request for your records explaining why the information is being sought and telling you how to object in court. The federal agency must also send you copies of court documents to be prepared by you with instructions for filling them out. While these procedures will be kept as simple as possible, you may want to consult an attorney before making a challenge to a federal agency's request.

EXCEPTIONS: In some circumstances, a federal agency may obtain financial information about you without advance notice or your consent. In most of these cases, the federal agency will be required to go to court for permission to obtain your records without giving you advance notice. In these instances, the court will make the Government show that its investigation and request for your records are proper. When the reason for the delay of notice no longer exists, you will usually be notified that your records were obtained.

TRANSFER OF INFORMATION: Generally, a federal agency that obtains your financial records is prohibited from transferring them to another federal agency unless it certifies that the transfer is proper and sends a notice to you that your records have been sent to another agency.

PENALTIES: If the federal agency or financial institution violates the Right to Financial Privacy Act, you may sue for damages or seek compliance with the law. If you win, you may be repaid your attorney's fee and other costs.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: If you have any questions about your rights under this law, or about how to consent to release your financial records, please call the official whose name and telephone number appear below:

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want...

He makes lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside still waters...

He restores my soul, He leads me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake...

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil...

For thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me...

Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies...

Thou anoints my head with oil, my cup runs over...

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the day of my life...

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Better Place

He is in a better place...Than he's ever been before
All pain is gone; he 's now at rest...Nothing troubles him anymore
It's we who feel the burden of our sadness, and our grief;
We have to cry, to mourn our loss...Before we get relief;
We know we'll reconnect with him...At the end of each life's road;
We'll see his cherished face again...When we release our earthly load.
